FINALLY

The winner of the trip for two to London is Robyn Walford. If there is a Mr Walford, then I suppose he will be the lucky sod to go with her. If, however, she is seeking a travel partner, then I'm sure everyone will agree that a couple of Friday Flash editions written on a lap top whilst watching Ana Ivanovic and slurping strawberries and cream would be appropriate.

While we are there, Robyn, I could show you around the East end, have a knees up at an authentic Pommie pub, take in a couple of West Ham games and introduce you to the delights of warm, flat beer. We could eat jellied eels on Southend pier and wear "Kiss me quick" hats and marvel at all the pasty white faces. I could interpret the cockney rhyming slang for you and show you all the best places in Soho.

So, what do you say, Robyn?

Enjoy your tennis.
