Apologies to (or grateful thanks from) all those whose feats and antics over the year have gone unacknowledged.

Lastly...

My girlfriend told me this morning that she was leaving me because of her obsession with The Monkees. I thought she was joking at first.

And then I saw her face....

I saw a dead cat in the road this morning.

It had just one eye popping out of it's head, his tongue was hanging out of his mouth and he only had 2 legs.

So for a laugh I superglued the it to a tree and wrote on a poster above it, 'Have You Seen This Cat?'

My wife rang me on my mobile today and said, "Where the hell are you?"

"Can you remember that jewellery shop we looked in on Saturday?" I said, "The one that had those earrings you liked in the window."

"Yes." She said, In a much more cheerful tone.

I said, "Well I'm in the pub next door."

I walked into a car showroom last night.

I said to the salesman, "My wife would like to talk to you about the Volkswagen Golf in the window."

He said, "We don't have a Volkswagen Golf in the window."

I said, "You do now."

Enjoy your tennis.
